UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
HAWAII COMMUNITY COLLEGE
EARLY ADMIT APPLICATION

The Early Admit program at Hawaii Community College (HawaiiCC) offers educational opportunities for high school students, including home schooled students, to get a jump start on their college studies (100 and above college level classes only) while attending high school.

To participate in this program, the high school student must submit the following documents to Admissions and Records Office at 1175 Manono Street, Hilo, HI 96720 or hawccar@hawaii.edu:

1. On-line UH System Kama‘āina Application for Early College
<https://star.hawaii.edu/shortapp/earlycollege/> , select Hawaii Community College
2. Early Admit Application Form
3. If home schooled student, Hawaii Department of Education Exceptions to Compulsory Education (4140) form

Once accepted at HawaiiCC (notified via email), the high school student is required to register with a HawaiiCC counselor. The high school student must take courses offered through HawaiiCC in which the student meets program and/or course prerequisite. The student is responsible for payment of the tuition/fees and any other educational expenses (e.g., books, supplies, lab fees), and comply with UH and HawaiiCC policies and procedures.

At the end of the term, the high school student authorizes HawaiiCC to send the students HawaiiCC grade(s) to the high school stated below:

- If the student wants to continue at HawaiiCC as an early admit high school student for the following semester (including summer), a new Early Admit application must be submitted to the Admissions and Records Office with all appropriate signatures.
- If the student is graduating from high school and wants to continue at HawaiiCC for the following semester (including summer), a Kama‘āina Application for High School Graduates must be submitted.
